Our Sacrifices and Compensations.

We are living in no ordinary times. The events of the past three and a half years are full of moment. No man can measure their full significance. To live in the presence of such events is a rare distinction. The times are impressive lessons of great value. They are teaching that he who is true to God is true also to man; that disloyalty to government is usually found in close connection with recreancy to the rights and interests of humanity and liberty. Never, in an equal time, nor on an equal scale, have nobler and meaner exhibitions of manhood been displayed. The poet, in one of his graphic descriptions of Lucifer, states, in substance, that he could not have been devil, if he had not first been angel. Thus, too, it would seem that the miscreants who have been showing the weaker and more malignant side of human nature, during this rebellion, could not have reached so deep a degree of meanness if they had not first been so highly exalted as citizens of this great nation. War has left its bloody imprint upon our fair heritage; its track of fire and blood is clearly marked through the best part of the country. Noble hearts, lately beating high with patriotism, have grown cold and still on two thousand hard fought fields. The heart of many a fond mother has been wrung with anguish for the loss of her son. Many wives, sisters, daughters have carried their heavy heart-burden of grief for the loss of husbands, brothers and fathers, who have gone down in the red gulf of battle. Two hundred thousand of killed, wounded and missing soldiers are reckoned among the national losses. Two thousand millions of dollars have gone in the same direction. Our commerce has been despoiled by piratical privateers. The fast growing greatness of our glorious country has been arrested by the present unprovoked and hell-begotten rebellion.

It is well to cast about and enquire whether all our sacrifice, expenditure and suffering have any adequate compensations, and whether there is sufficient warrant for hope in the outlook. Among the results which have issued, or are probable to issue from this war, may be named the following:

The supremacy, the unity and the authority of the national government have been asserted against millions of insurgents who have waged war upon us. The pernicious doctrine of States Rights has been pronounced false in fact and repugnant also to the convictions and impulses of the great mass of the American people. We are not a fragmentary, disconnected, incoherent number of rival or warring sovereignties, as the doctrine of States Rights insisted for by secessionists would imply; but a great nation, strongly cohering by a common bond, and instead of its being the boast of the dwellers in this section or that, "I am a citizen of Missouri, or Tennessee, or South Carolina," as false teaching had led so many to claim, it may now be justly the boast of every member of this great nation, "I am an American citizen." The commingling influence of a common army drawn from all parts of the republic, in defense of the menaced liberties of the nation, and the equally common effort made from Maine to Oregon to provide for the Union army as well as the very cause in which our soldiers are fighting, have asserted triumphantly the national unity and supremacy. The power of a republican form of government has been demonstrated. Aristocrats and tyrants have claimed that while a republican form of government is mild and paternal in times of peace, it has no energy or efficiency in war to repel invasion or to punish or subdue insurrection. France and England uttered this libel upon our institutions and the London Times has echoed it around the world. An army of a million men and a navy of six hundred vessels, many of them iron-clads, and ability to carry on a war of such magnitude for three and a half years, without exhausting the national resources, going abroad for foreign loans or disturbing the national industries and prosperity; all this and the punishment we have inflicted upon the enemies of the country, must dissipate the slander concerning our nation's weakness. A government of such gigantic capabilities cannot be justly faulted for weakness and inefficiency.

On the largest scale ever witnessed this war has developed the highest, noblest type of patriotism. Freely, cheerfully and fearlessly have men of all parties and all sections came forward to defend the nation. Casting aside passion and prejudice, men of various parties, of all classes have vied with each other as to who should be foremost and who should do most in defense of liberty, law, government. Money has been liberally furnished to supply the national exchequer. The politics of the country have been purified; not indeed, sufficiently, yet quite obviously. The people have interested themselves more than heretofore, and the wire-workers and party demagogues have been compelled to stand aside for better men. The political principles of the people have become more correct and incorporated into political action, which is more intelligent and patriotic. The lust of place and spoils and power has given place to love of country and intelligent convictions of right and duty, as great motives of political conduct.

The tendency of the government to liberty, the charities evolved, the victories achieved and the assured prosperity already and complete success in overthrowing rebellion and in restoring the land to peace are auspicious results which have followed upon the nation's effort to maintain its supremacy, integrity and constitutional liberties. War is a terrible calamity; but in some cases it is better than peace. In this, it was inevitable so far as the government was concerned, and pursued as it has been by us upon principles of right and justice, its progress to the present makes the brightest page of American history. The crowning glory will be given it when the loyal masses of the United States shall place their highest seal of approval upon it by re-electing to the Presidency honest Abraham Lincoln.

MEXICAN INTELLIGENCE.—The Mazatlan Times, of the 19th September, has the following information of recent Mexican victories over the French:

La Opinion de Sinaloa of the 10th inst., announces the receipt of letters from Durango, dated on the 1st, and written by responsible persons, containing the information that a force of French troops numbering 900, had been defeated at or near Santa Rosa by Gen. Patoni. The invaders lost two or three hundred in killed and wounded. Great consternation prevailed in Durango, and the hospitals were being put in order to receive the wounded. There were only two hundred French troops in that place, and the same number of Imperialists.

Official information has been received of the defeat of [illegible] at Zitacuaro, in the State Michoacan, on the 5th July last, by the gallant Col. Riva Palacio, Governor and Commandante Militar of the First District of the State of Mexico.

At this late hour we cannot give the particulars. Great enthusiasm was manifested among our citizens on the receipt of the news.

The same paper of the 19th August, says: A courier reached this city yesterday (Sunday) afternoon from Durango, bringing highly important war news from our neighboring State. The intelligence is unofficial, but is regarded as perfectly reliable.

It appears that on Saturday, the 10th, Gens. [illegible], Ortega and Patoni were at Los Sauces, 15 leagues from the city of Durango, with 8,000 national forces. There were but 200 French troops and 700 traitors in that city, and they were making extraordinary efforts to increase their numbers for their own defense. On Monday, the 12th, when this courier was within a short distance of Durango, he heard heavy firing, which continued for some time.

In San Juan del Rio, 500 French were attacked and routed by Col. [illegible], and 60 of them killed. A number were wounded, and many prisoners captured.

The different points between this port and Durango, which have been occupied by the invaders, have been evacuated by them, owing to the proximity of the national forces.

The opinion prevails among intelligent gentlemen here that the recent victories of the national forces near Durango has forced the evacuation of that place by the invaders, and that they are moving towards Zacatecas.

Sheridan, the "Abolitionist," continues to stump for Lincoln in Virginia. His prospects for carrying the Shenandoah Valley is very good.

Terrible Fighting North of the James.

300 Prisoners Captured, including several Officers.

Sheridan Still Advancing!

Our Cavalry Reported at Gordonsville.

Early's Army Reported [illegible] Retreating [illegible]

Gen. Lee [illegible] Military Dictator of the Rebel Confederacy.

New York, Oct. 3.—The Herald has the following account of the fight north of James river on Friday, Sept. 30:

Three desperate attempts were made by the enemy to retake the works captured from them Thursday. Gen. Lee commanded in person, but the rebels were driven back each time with [illegible] loss. At 2 o'clock the enemy were discovered massing troops in the woods directly opposite the fort captured yesterday, and in a half an hour they charged with wild yells and heavy columns of attack. The gunboats at the same time opened on our position and our line was enfiladed by fire from the rebel battery on the river. The men, however, stood steadily to their posts and received the rebels with so hot and well directed and incessant a fire that they broke in confusion and retired to the woods. Twice they rallied and returned to the charge, but with the same result until finally broken and dispirited they fell back in irremediable confusion, leaving the ground covered with dead and wounded. Prisoners report that one thousand were killed and wounded. Over 300 prisoners were taken including many officers and the greater part of the 8th North Carolina regiment. Among those captured are several field officers and Capt. McGuire, Inspector General, of Clingman's Staff. Several regimental flags were taken by Stannard's division. Two of them were captured by the 13th Connecticut and 18th Pennsylvania. The fight has been pronounced one of the most desperate of the war, likewise the most brilliant, and as to the management of the troops, Gen. Weitzel has added one more leaf to his laurels won in Louisiana.

The Herald's special dispatch, dated Martinsburg, Oct. 1st, says:

The latest intelligence from Sheridan left him making preparations to force Early's army from Brown's Gap in the Blue Ridge. This was on the 29th. Early's position was represented as being very strong. He doubtless intends to hold it as a protection to Gordonsville and Charlottesville as well as Lynchburg and the country thereabout, for while holding this point if Sheridan advances upon Lynchburg, Early threatens his rear and supplies. There can be little doubt of Sheridan's success for Early's army has lost heart and Brown's Gap will prove another Fisher's Hill.

The World's Washington special last evening says:

An unauthenticated report prevails here that our cavalry have entered Gordonsville. It is known that our cavalry force were near that place.

New York, Oct. 3.—The following is the Tribune's special account of the operations before Petersburg: On the 29th Gen. Gregg, supported by two brigades of infantry, pushed a reconnoissance from our left towards the Lynchburg Railroad as far as Poplar Spring Church, beyond the Vaughn Turnpike. No enemy in force discovered. Next day Gen. Griffin's division of the Fifth corps advancing beyond the church in a northwesterly direction, came upon the enemy in a strong position two miles from the Weldon Railroad. Their preparations for defense, though not completed, were very formidable. Gen. Griffin decided to carry the works by storm, and accordingly formed his division into three lines of battle, the 3d brigade in advance under Col. Gwynne, of Eleventh Pennsylvania. The assault was brilliant and perfectly successful. The whole line of works was taken with two or three guns and fifty prisoners. The other guns were dragged away. The rebel left all their dead and wounded on the field. The prisoners belong to Beauregard's command, among them one Major, one Captain and five Lieutenants. Our loss, is not great—I think, not over 150—but one of our best officers, Col. Welch of the Sixteenth Michigan, is killed. The following officers were captured: Maj. Partridge, Lieut. [illegible] and Lieut. [illegible], all of the Sixteenth Michigan.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, Oct. 2.—The enemy attacked Ayres' division of the Fifth corps yesterday morning and were repulsed with heavy loss. This was the only fighting yesterday on our left, except an attack by Wade Hampton's cavalry on Gregg's cavalry on the Vaughn road, where they were driven back with considerable loss. Our army is strongly intrenched. A battle may occur at any moment. The enemy claim to have a number of prisoners from the Ninth corps.

The Richmond papers boast of a victory over Sheridan, and say he was retreating.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Passengers from City Point yesterday morning report heavy firing on the right and left of Petersburg, but but little in front. The entire army is in motion, indicating that a general engagement is meditated.

FORTRESS MONROE, Oct. 2.—The mail boat [illegible], from City Point, has arrived. Heavy firing was heard all the morning on the north side of the James river, but nothing has been received as to the results. Rebel refugees of all classes are pouring into Bermuda Hundred, some coming down the river on rafts in their eagerness to escape the perils of the Confederacy. Rebel officers, prisoners in our hands, say that Richmond cannot much longer withstand the siege in progress. All here have full hopes of success. The soldiers are in high spirits, expecting soon to achieve the greatest results.

New York, Oct. 3.—The Tribune's special says: Our lines (Butler's) now extend from Chapin's Bluff to White Oak Swamp, a distance of five or six miles from Richmond. From the bluff we command the enemy's lower pontoon bridge across the James. Our entire loss was 700. It is reported that Torbert's cavalry had captured 500 of Early's trains beyond Staunton, also reported that a force of rebel cavalry had taken possession of Grafton. We had no force there. The citizens of Harrisonburg say, Early had 3 pieces of artillery and 10,000 men when he passed that place. At Staunton he had 2 batteries of 5 pieces each in reserve. His troops had lost regimental organization and were retreating pell mell for a place of safety.

The Herald's tenth corps correspondent says:

Davis and his cabinet have fled from Richmond. The Whig was the only Richmond paper published on the 30th, owing to a general impressment of arms-bearers. Lee is said to be acting independently of all instructions and in fact is a military dictator of the rebellion, as his retreat in the direction of Weldon is cut off, it is thought he will concentrate his forces at Richmond and make a life or death struggle there.

New York, Oct. 1.—The Evening Post says, we hear that certain merchants and capitalists are engaging in attempts to forestall the gold market and raise the price of gold and that they have confided their operations to a prominent broker furnishing him with the necessary capital.

Abraham Wakeman retired yesterday from the Postoffice and assumed the duties of Surveyor of the Port to-day.

The Herald's New Orleans correspondent says the family of President Juarez will leave for New York by the steamer [illegible] where they will reside till the troubles are over. Gen. [illegible] and other Mexican officials accompanied them.

The Council of War exonerated Gen. Page from the charge of destroying the military property after [illegible] surrender.

FORTRESS MONROE, Oct. 1.—The hospital steamer [illegible] arrived from the north side of the James river. She reports heavy firing on the south side of Petersburg was continued at a late hour last evening. No important results are yet reported. All is favorable.

The hospital steamer [illegible] [illegible] Hospital [illegible] some 200 [illegible].

New York, Oct. 2.—The Herald's 10th Corps correspondent says [illegible] the corps [illegible] by daylight on the 29th [illegible] the enemy [illegible] across the fields [illegible] New Market road [illegible] was occupied by the enemy, who were strongly fortified on the heights. Our advance was obstinately contested [illegible] strong natural [illegible] under Gen. [illegible] The charge was one of the grandest [illegible] of the operations of the day. [illegible] they advanced to a successful accomplishment of their task. This put the enemy [illegible] Gens. Grant and Butler [illegible] the field [illegible] the struggle [illegible] the troops, and [illegible] the cheers and shouts of the men were beyond example. Three miles above New Market the enemy had very strong works. Birney [illegible] pursued the retreating rebels so closely that they could not stop to reform their ranks. [illegible] Those works cross the New Market road just beyond Laurel Hill Church. Their guns swept the roads in all directions. [illegible] by general assault. He reconnoitered the ground himself amid a storm of shells I have never seen surpassed. The troops went in with a murderous fire of grape and canister and sweeping volleys of musketry, which worked terrible havoc in our ranks. Still unflinchingly they held their way. In crossing the intervening crest of open land they were exposed to a most frightful enfilading fire. Casualties were terrible, but still the line pressed forward. On approaching the redoubts they were found to be much more formidable than we at first supposed. [illegible] the rebel infantry mowed them down. The forts were surrounded by a deep ditch [illegible] which the negro soldiers leaped only to find themselves penned in with no door of retreat. The works had no sally ports and were accessible only by the side of the ditch. This position we held till night, when a demonstration was made to carry the works in front of the ditch in which our men were cooped up, thus giving them no chance to escape. Though we made an advance up the road of from a half to three quarters of a mile, it cost us very dearly. This corps lost over 500 killed and wounded. Kautz's cavalry while this was going on dashed boldly up to the very gates of Richmond, which fact he reported to Butler, who immediately dispatched a division of infantry to his support. This division marched unresisted to within a musket range of Richmond, and probably might have marched into the rebel capital though it is clear they could not have held it. On arriving in the suburbs of the city, they found that Kautz had withdrawn. The division was then ordered to return, although our advance was checked at Laurel Hill. The expedition has by no means terminated.

New York, Oct. 2.—The Herald's correspondent with the 18th corps gives the following account of the part taken by that corps: Hickman's and Stannard's division crossed the James river at Aiken's Landing and marched one mile before they came into contact with the enemy. They showed no actual desire to fight and fell back rapidly from the line and rifle pits. When they reached the main line, they showed resistance and opened fire with sharpshooters, artillery, &c. Immediately in front of Stannard and commanding the road, was a large fort mounting 14 guns. Preparation was made to storm it and when ready, Gen. Ord gave the signal and our men rushed across the field in the face of artillery and musketry fire and captured the fort, guns and took a number prisoners. General Ord was wounded just as he entered the fort. Gen. Burnham was killed just as he was about to enter. Hickman took command of the corps after Ord was wounded and made several desperate charges to capture the enemy's 2d line but owing to fact that the 10th corps and Payne's division of the 18th corps did not join in till noon, no further successes were met with. Twenty-two guns were captured.

The Herald's correspondent at Butler's Headquarters, under the date of the 30th, writes: Early yesterday forenoon, Butler had captured all the fortifications save one, immediately opposite Fort Darling. We still hold them notwithstanding the vigorous shelling by the rebels. The fact that one of our hospitals was located within 3 miles of the city yesterday is significant.

It is reported that the rebels are rushing reinforcements to the left by train loads of fifteen to seventeen cars each.

Foreign News.

New York, Oct. 2.—The Persian from Liverpool of the 22d, has arrived. Latest American advices are regarded as so favorable for the North that the Confederate loan has declined a quarter less than nine per cent. in one week.

The Times editorially criticising platforms of the two parties regards them as identical, except one is turned upside down. Lincoln cannot forego union and must keep on fighting, but will make peace if the Union is preserved as unconditionally as anybody. McClellan cannot forego union, but instead of going on with the war, he puts the peace experiment first and reserves fighting for afterwards.

The Times thinks the nation, after enjoying a respite from war and tasting the blessings of peace once more, may gradually be resolved upon retaining those blessings even at the expense of what now might be thought impossible surrender.

On the Danish question, the [illegible] says: The intention of England to make an extension of armistice has been abandoned. The protection of peace negotiations on the part of Denmark has not been without influence on that point. In fact the political situation of Copenhagen has assumed a peculiar character. Not only do the Swedish papers evince in the most pointed manner Scandinavian ardencies, but even Copenhagen journals openly avow the sentiment favorable to Scandinavian dynasty. Instead of recognizing, they attack stipulations in peace preliminaries. It is, therefore, quite intelligible that the great German powers should adhere strictly to that paragraph of the protocol of the armistice whereby hostilities may be resumed any time after six months' notice.

The London Morning Post confirms the report of a new treaty between France and Italy, and believes itself justified in announcing that the convention is signed for the withdrawal of the French troops from Rome. The principal points are that the French forces shall be gradually withdrawn within two years. That the King of Italy shall undertake to preserve inviolate the possessions of the church as at present defined, and guarantee not to countenance or assist machinations of what is termed party of action in Italy. The French journals are demanding explanations from the Moniteur on the subject.

The Italian parliament is convoked for the 5th of October.

A demonstration had taken place at Turin. A number of young men paraded the streets shouting "Down with the Ministry." No disturbance occurred and the assemblage dispersed on its own account.

In Spain, the minister of the Interior has sent a circular to civil governors recommending impartial treatment of all political parties, and at same time exercise severity in maintenance of law and order.

In Greece, national assembly decided in favor of the Senate. There will be only one Chamber in future.

THE IMPORTANCE OF THE OREGON TRADE.—As the present has become considerable of an epoch in the commercial and financial history of Oregon it is high time that the people of other sections shall give the subject the attention it deserves. We notice very strong symptoms of a change in the leaders of the California press especially which have hitherto been ridiculously set forth in their pernicious endeavors at ignoring the existence of any place on the Pacific coast but California. What our efforts may have accomplished in bringing the true state of things to the knowledge of liberal Californians, we are not prepared to say. But such is the case that we do now see in Oregon a wealthy and growing trade for which they seem willing to exert every possible means in procuring to themselves. They are not alone, however, in their efforts to get on the right side of Oregon merchants. Victoria comes to our doors with her supplies of iron, English fabrics and wares, for which she is more than anxious we should help ourselves at the most advantageous rates. Then again, comes the heavily freighted cargoes from the far off Sandwich Islands, which are exchanged here for our lumber and produce. It has become a noted fact that to get goods on board of a vessel on San Francisco for Oregon, requires much loss of time, and is attended with no small degree of excitement, while the same vessels return from here with valuable cargoes, and invariably heavy freight reports. That our commerce now so handsomely begun must continue to increase none can doubt, and it very much stands us in hand that we prepare fully for what is to come to us, here at home in the commercial emporium. Portland must be made a port of entry; then we shall have foreign vessels of every clime in our sufficient harbor. The obstacles which are presented to exist against us for our acceptability as a port of entry are not half so troublesome as the [illegible] in the parable of faith. Philadelphia on the Delaware, New Orleans on the Mississippi, various cities on the Potomac, and hundreds of places in the United States, could never have been established ports of entry, had the doctrines advocated by a few [illegible] been accepted, but they were not, and the importance of those points gained for them the privileges to which they were entitled. So it will be with Portland. There is now too much influence, too much capital here, too many advantages to be taken into consideration, not to entitle her to those privileges, and we expect our people to be more profitably engaged in the future, in urging their claims before Congress.

WORKING OREGON IRON.—Mr. Thompson, of the [illegible] shop above Main street, on Front, [illegible] may be considered a curiosity, yet it is a very important matter as showing what may be done with the crude, raw material abounding in this State. It is a large horse shoe, which has been forged out of rough iron smelted upon the mountain ridges, such as, if developed properly, might bring thousands of dollars annually to Oregon. It seems as though we should develop this portion of our resources, and manufacture our own iron, as there is scarcely an arrival in port that does not bring more or less of stoves, machinery, etc., for us. We have coal good enough for making coke, as we understand, which can be used in melting the ore, and apparently all that is necessary will be a move in the direction of establishing a foundry for the [illegible].

KANAKA WOMEN.—The lady correspondent of the [illegible], writing from Honolulu, gives some very amusing pen portraits of the natural ease and [illegible] of the Kanaka women. After reading the description, then meeting with one of those so [illegible] to, on board the Honolulu packet now [illegible], we conceded that the American women might well take up with the suggestions contained in the letter of the lady correspondent. The dress is one of the principal characteristics with the native women of the Sandwich Islands. Loose, neat, and untrammelled by stays, which gives nature free scope in the development of the system.

[illegible] AND HOOPS.—Many of the ladies of [illegible] have recently accepted of the instructions [illegible] to them by their old favorite in Philadelphia, Godey—and have thrown off the superfluity of the excessive hoops. It is admitted to be an [illegible], but caution should guard them in the [illegible] of the late conveniences. A large number [illegible] sets may be seen in the streets of the city [illegible] various places, and we are informed that in one [illegible] a cow became entangled in the meshes of [illegible], which came near making her a cripple. [illegible] are not adapted to cows unless the critter [illegible] made beef, and corned.

[illegible] DIGGINGS.—By parties direct from Canyon City, the John Day mines, we are informed that [illegible] diggings have been struck on Rocky Creek, a [illegible] about eighty miles from Canyon City, on the Dalles road. Persons who were on their route to the valley were well pleased with the prospects they had obtained, and concluded to remain there. It was thought by some, however, that the hostility of the Indian tribes would not allow them to remain [illegible] long.

[illegible] WHISKEY.—The usual quiet of the city was somewhat irritated yesterday by the effects of an overdose of rather noisy whisky, which had [illegible] way down the thorax of an unsophisticated individual from the interior. Through the exertions of the City Marshal the whisky and the individual were summarily housed in the calaboose to quiet down. The affair created considerable stir in the streets through which the dray passed with the body.

CARELESS DRIVING.—A couple of fast young [illegible] driving furiously about the city yesterday in a [illegible] buggy, endangered the lives of pedestrians in a desperate manner. At the junction of [illegible] and First streets a woman narrowly escaped being knocked down by their horse and run over, and soon after at the junction of Front and Washington a man had his back grazed by the shaft of the vehicle as it came upon him on the cross walk. Fortunately nobody was hurt.

[illegible] TRAVELING.—Walter Moffitt has lately returned to this city from a tour through portions of [illegible], Canada, Ireland, France, England and Scotland. He was absent from Portland five months [illegible] seven days. The first six weeks took him from this city via San Francisco, New York, and Montreal, to Dublin. This we term fast traveling, the [illegible] must have been through [illegible].

A NATIVE CREW.—The bark Cambridge, now discharging a cargo of Sandwich Island produce in the city, has a crew composed almost wholly of natives of those Islands. They appear to be good [illegible], and understand their duties with as much [illegible] as experienced white mariners, while as [illegible] they are quite as active as any in the [illegible].

A STEADY FLOW.—The steady and constant arrival of emigrants from the States has become one of the regular items of our observation. The steamer from the Cascades last evening brought an addition to our permanent population, in round numbers, making the sum of eighteen families—most of them with numerous children. [illegible] have reached Webfoot during the last two days.

GRAND UNION RALLY.—Arrangements are being perfected for a grand Union rally, and the formation of a Union Club in this city to-morrow evening. We understand Judge Williams, and others, will be present and address the assemblage. Further particulars will be announced to-morrow.

PERSONAL.—Mrs. Rogers returned last evening from Salem, after having received two first premiums for the sewing and embroidery on the Grover & Baker machines. She will remain at Arrigoni's until the steamer leaves and will be happy to give instructions in ornamental work to any parties who may call on her at the hotel.

PERSONAL.—Mr. W. B. R[illegible], traveling agent and correspondent of the Marysville Appeal, called at our sanctum last evening. His tour is based upon connections with that office, and we commend him to the loyal readers of Portland.

FURNITURE SALE.—The regular business sales at auction will be transacted by Mr. A. B. Richardson this morning. Among other things a lot of furniture will be sold.

COUNTRY ITEMS.—From the Walla Walla Statesman of Sept. 30th, we glean the following:

Intelligence from Fisherville, in the Kootenai district, furnishes a brief account of the doings of a recent [illegible]. [illegible] Johnny Bull [illegible] in the person of Mr. Commissioner [illegible] [illegible] Her Majesty's servant [illegible] [illegible]. Every miner is allowed [illegible] and is taxed $5 quarterly for [illegible] [illegible] levied on each gallon of [illegible] [illegible] $1.50, for all other commodities, 10 per cent. There is any quantity of mining implements and staple goods in the mines, and are [illegible] at comparatively low figures. Flour, 35 [illegible]; sugar, from [illegible]; bacon, 60 to 75c. Vegetables were being brought in from the Colville and Walla Walla valleys in great quantities. Onions were [illegible] from 25 to [illegible] per pound; fresh beef, 30c.; butter, $1 [illegible]; eggs, from $1 to $1 [illegible] per dozen.

A returned miner from the Eastern slope of the mountains gives it as his opinion that as good mines as have been found anywhere are on Alder Gulch in the Stinking-water district. This is a branch of the Jefferson Fork of the Missouri river. The mines extend some 15 miles and are said to be very rich; one day three persons cleaned up about $2,000. The average pay was $20 to $30 per day to the hand; $6 per day was the ruling price for laborers, and as high as $10 for good drifters.

On and after Saturday next, October 2d, Thomas & Co's Stages will leave Walla Walla every other day, carrying passengers through to Placerville for $40.

The first effect of a bilious climate upon the human system is to produce torpor and inactivity of the liver, thereby preventing the natural and free discharge of bile. All know the lurking nature of the poison that produces Fever and Ague, and its kindred diseases. A sallow complexion, capricious appetite, and occasional pain in the side, are often the only symptoms to warn of impending danger. The operation of Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue is to counteract this miasmal influence, by producing activity of the biliary organs, and a healthy discharge of bile from the system.

"A Slight Cold," Coughs.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a Cough or "slight cold" in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" give sure and almost immediate relief. Military Officers and Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires.

Dysentery.—For Dysentery and similar complaints of the Summer season, the PERUVIAN SYRUP has proved a remarkable preventive and cure. Louis McMurray & Co., Baltimore.

THE ATTENTION OF THE TRADE IS PARTICULARLY requested to the above favorite brand of Oysters. Messrs. McMurray & Co. claim to be the only firm that still adheres to the plan of opening the Oyster in its raw state, by hand, thus preserving intact its native delicacy and flavor. The superiority of this method over the one in general use, of steaming the Oysters in bulk in order to open them, whereby the natural liquor is lost and a manufactured one has to be substituted, is apparent, and recommends itself to all who have given this brand a trial.

The undersigned are receiving fresh invoices by each arrival of clippers from New York, which they offer to the trade on favorable terms.

ONCE upon a time, both a Saddler and a Blacksmith were required to work upon a Horse, but now the boots are done away with, and the Saddler is required no more. And not long ago Missourian Shoeing was very prevalent in this city, but now it is done away with, because the best of judges pronounce it to be only fit for Cayuse Ponies, and not for American Horses.

Having had great experience in the line of HORSE SHOEING, gentlemen favoring me with a trial can rely upon having their work executed in the best workmanlike manner, and upon the most reasonable terms.

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS.

THE OPERATION OF THIS PALATABLE REMEDY upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is at once soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and invigorates. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its cordial and invigorating properties.

Invigorate the System.

Vigorous digestion and pure bile produce nutritious blood, and nutritious blood a healthy frame. Does the victim of a dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver desire to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified?

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system, regulating the secretions and excretions, giving tone to the natural juices which dissolve the food, strengthen every relaxed nerve, muscle and fibre, and brings the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

Strengthen the System.

The best means of imparting vigor to the broken-down frame and shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is proffered to the feeble of both sexes and all ages in

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wasted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthy invigorant. For Indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A word to the Aged.

In the decline of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters,

As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

For Females.

Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility, and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and enlightens the depressed mental powers, as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any reaction.

FIGHT [illegible] A BRIDE.—The Stockton Independent of [illegible] September [illegible] has the following curious story:

A lengthy individual named Jones, residing along the Mokelumne river, [illegible] for a livelihood, [illegible] of a Miss Short, residing at [illegible] of Hicks, [illegible] were followed by [illegible] and the young lady was [illegible] Short name given [illegible] by larger [illegible] couldn't [illegible] ardent swain [illegible] Short, [illegible] did the [illegible] of Jones [illegible] Wales. [illegible] now left was [illegible] order. Jones [illegible] "all is not lost," [illegible] in me." According [illegible] and as the lady was over age, [illegible] contracted by her was legal, whether her parents consented or not. Accordingly [illegible] a reverend "blacksmith" to weld the [illegible] with but a single thought" together, and [illegible] of friends to await their arrival at [illegible] where the ceremony was to take place. [illegible] landlord where they were [illegible] Accordingly, on Tuesday evening [illegible] up to the door of Short's [illegible] given, the lady appeared [illegible] the expected bridegroom, and away they [illegible] But the alarm soon spread through the [illegible] halls of the Chateau de Short [illegible] and there was "mounting in hot haste." [illegible] plied the lash vigorously, [illegible] for they had gone four miles [illegible] the smoking steeds [illegible] pursuers were alongside the carriage and [illegible] armed with bowie-knives, were cutting the harness off the horses. The horses were soon freed from the buggy, which was left in the middle of the road, and then a desperate fight for the possession of the young lady ensued, in which Jones was stabbed in the left arm by Short, who bore the lady home again in triumph. Jones has gone to Sacramento. The affair having taken place in that county, where he has ere this, in all probability, commenced legal proceedings against Short for the violent wounds inflicted upon him, which are more severe than serious.

TERRIBLE INDIAN MASSACRE.—The Austin Reveille of September 23d says:

L. Morse and family arrived in this city a few days ago, and from him we learn some of the particulars of a terrible Indian massacre that took place on the 12th of July last, at Box Elder creek, seventy miles this side of Fort Laramie. Seventy-five Indians attacked a train of five wagons, containing several families from Jackson county, Missouri, and among them were two negro men. Sharp and three other white men, whose names we could not ascertain, and a negro man were instantly killed, as was also a little girl, the daughter of Kelley, aged about ten years. Another man was wounded, and two women were captured. After robbing the train of everything except the naked wagons, they proceeded on and met Morse's wagon, killing a young man named Arthur Wright, from Hennipen county, Minnesota, who was somewhat in advance of the wagon. Morse, with his family, escaped the bloodthirsty savages by putting back towards Laramie as fast as his horses could travel, the Indians pursuing him for five miles, keeping up a running fire and only giving up the chase when they came in sight of a large train. During the chase, Morse threw away his provisions to lighten the wagon and his little boy received a slight wound in the arm. The two women made their escape five days after and returned to their friends who escaped the massacre. They stated that they were well treated by the savages, and no indignities were offered them by their captivity.

Tonic and Alterative Medicine.

THE PROOFS OF ITS EFFICACY are so numerous, so well authenticated, and of such peculiar character that sufferers cannot reasonably hesitate to receive the proffered aid.

The class of diseases for which the Syrup provides a cure, is precisely that which has so often baffled the highest order of medical skill. The facts are tangible, the witnesses accessible, and the safety and efficacy of the Syrup incontrovertible.

From well-known Citizens of Boston.

The undersigned having experienced the beneficial effects of the "Peruvian Syrup," do not hesitate to recommend it to the attention of the public.

Certificate of Dr. Hayes.

It is well known that the medicinal effects of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation, has been deemed impossible.

In the Peruvian Syrup this desirable point is attained by combination in a way before unknown; and this solution may replace all the proto-carbonates, citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica. A. A. HAYES, M. D.,

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DIScovery of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to over-estimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It is well known to

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless until Dr. Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve without a solvent. This considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr. J. R. Chilton, of this city, and Prof. Booth, U. S. Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journal, and its use recommended to practitioners in "American Medical Monthly," July 6, 1856, page 26.

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body in the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color, hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and hearty.

Full directions accompany each bottle.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle. Prepared by Dr H. Anders & Co. Physicians and Chemists, New York.

S. B. [illegible], Sec'y. [illegible]

From the army hospital—the bloody battle-field—the mansion of the rich and humble abode of the poor—from the office and the sacred desk—from the mountain tops, distant valleys and far-off islands of the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands upon thousands of letters like the following may be seen at our office.

[illegible] I have been in the army hospital for [illegible] months—speechless and nearly dead. At Alton, Ill., they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. [illegible] three bottles restored my speech and cured me.
C. A. FLAUTE.

[illegible] Our son [illegible] who had been [illegible] and out of the house for [illegible] with Scrofula and Erysipelas, after paying the doctors over $[illegible] without benefit, has been cured by a few bottles of your Bitters.
EDWARD WOODALL.

The following is from the Manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

HAVEMEYER MANSION, FIFTY-SEVENTH STREET,
NEW YORK, August 2, 1863.

Dr. DRAKE:—Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs with most happy effect. One little girl, in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well. [illegible] Respectfully, MRS. O. M. DEVOE.

[illegible] I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life.
REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y.

[illegible] Thou wilt send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefited by their use.
Thy friend, ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa.

[illegible] I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and had to abandon preaching. [illegible] The Plantation Bitters have cured me.
REV. C. S. CATHORN, Rochester, N. Y.

[illegible] Send us twenty-four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which are daily increasing with the guests of our house.
SYKES, CHADWICK & CO.,
Proprietors Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C.

[illegible] I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect.
G. W. ANDREWS,
Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O.

[illegible] The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business.
H. B. KINGSLEY, Cleveland, O.

[illegible] The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.
C. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway, N. Y.

etc. etc. etc. etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff, for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States stamp over the cork unmutilated, and our signature on steel plate side label.

Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure for the maladies above-mentioned, and also

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY, LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS.

And in every disease any way connected with the disorder or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once restored, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom or apathy, becomes bright and active, and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor. The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS AND
CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGURY AND BURNING OR PAINFUL URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females.

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back, and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.
